

Team H & R

Since its formation in 1918 by Alfred Hare, the company is still owned and run by the same family having been passed down to the Jackson's and Robson's

Currently all but one member of our team has been apprentice trained with us since leaving school.

First point of contact in the office are Directors, Steve Jackson and Andy Robson, who would happily survey your project and tender a quote.

Bob Jackson is the 3rd Director and Senior Foreman Joiner.

Chris Wilson and Steve Thorpe are also Foreman Joiners who work along side Steve Dunn, David Harris, Glenn Newton, Alex Renton and Luke Wilson.

All operatives hold CSCS cards with the new Heritage Skills accreditations, a requirement by English Heritage for working on Listed Properties.

We are members of the Historic Houses Association and York Consortium for Conservation & Craftsmanship.
